

PhD DOCTORATE in MANAGEMENT

The SMSS PhD in Management consists (consecutively) of two semesters of course work (the first year) focusing on core and elective courses, two semesters of proposal presentation, field work, seminars and post-field presentation (the second year), and two semesters of final thesis writing, quality control and final oral examination (the third year). The elective courses are to be offered depending on the area of specialization of the candidate.

Programme Structure

The programme is designed for a full time duration of 3 years and a part-time duration of 4 years aimed at awarding the Pan-Atlantic University degree of PhD in Management with the following areas of specialization:

- (1) General Management
- (2) Marketing
- (3) Finance
- (4) Human Resources
- (5) Operation and Production Management
- (6) Strategic Management & Entrepreneurship
- (7) Organizational Behaviour
- (8) Accounting.

Candidates should indicate during their application process the likely area of specialization. Candidates are required to take prescribed taught courses and participate in all recommended readings, reviews and seminars as progress depends on one's performance.
